

CGYFL President Duties

Dedication

The President must give up personal time and attend meetings that benefit the players and football program. He / She generally has excellent organizational and communication skills needed to work with the CGYFL Football Board Members.

Duties

The President shall be Chief Officer of CGYFL, and shall manage all CGYFL business and implement policies established by the Executive Board.

The President shall preside at all meetings, call special meetings as needed, and appoint all committees with a majority vote of all the football board.

The President shall delegate responsibilities of the Executive Board appointed to him and shall perform the duties usually required of a presiding member. The President shall perform such duties ordinarily incumbent upon Presidents and such other duties as may be assigned by the Executive Board.

The President shall assist the Athletic Director in any matter concerning the CGYFL with the federation in which they are participating in. The President will need to attend any and all meetings with the Federation in which the league is participating under.

The President shall assist the Athletic Director in acquiring practice and game fields.

The President shall work with the Equipment Manager and maintain a copy of the annual equipment inventory.

The President along with the Athletic Director shall assist the Executive Board in the implementation of all coaches and provide proper training of coaches. This includes the certification of all coaches in Heads Up football and CPR certification and will provide the league secretary all the proper paperwork of all coaches.

The President shall be responsible for providing all association updates and rule changes in writing to the Board, as necessary, communicate League schedule information to Coaches and Executive staff, and help in maintaining and publishing on website a consistent list of disciplinary actions for infractions that negatively impact CGYFL

The President needs to be in attendance at all Home games with League rules on hand if the Athletic Director is unable to do so.